

Adrianne Beauregard

Edmonton, AB | beauregardadrianne@gmail.com | 587-597-3595

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Creative operations and administrative professional with a Bachelor of Fine Arts & Design and extensive experience supporting executive leadership, arts organizations, large-scale events, immersive installations, community programming, and public-facing creative projects. Skilled at coordinating moving parts across fast-paced environments while maintaining strong communication, organization, and professionalism. Brings a unique combination of executive administrative experience, arts and production collaboration, event logistics, audience experience awareness, and creative problem-solving.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Creative Production & Event Coordination
- Executive & Administrative Support
- Project & Timeline Management
- Public-Facing Client & Stakeholder Communication
- Immersive Installation & Set Design Support
- Workshop Facilitation & Community Engagement
- Scheduling, Documentation & Reporting
- Production Logistics & Team Coordination
- Microsoft Office, Google Workspace & Adobe
- Adaptability in Fast-Paced Environments

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Deputy Electoral Officer / Field Operations Contractor, OneFeather Technologies

January 2023 – Present

- Coordinate and support public-facing operational events and voting initiatives across multiple communities throughout Canada.
- Prepare event and operational spaces including setup, materials organization, signage, troubleshooting, and workflow coordination.
- Communicate professionally with community members, leadership, and stakeholders while maintaining calm and efficient operations in high-pressure environments.
- Maintain detailed operational documentation, reporting accuracy, and accountability procedures.

Executive Administrator, Art Gallery of Alberta (AGA)

Oct 2025 – Dec 2025

- Provided executive-level administrative support within a major arts and cultural institution.
- Coordinated board and governance documentation including agendas, minutes, scheduling, presentations, and correspondence.
- Supported fundraising initiatives, strategic planning coordination, and organizational operations.
- Worked within a collaborative creative environment supporting leadership, stakeholders, and public-facing initiatives.

Health & Wellness Project Coordinator / Executive Assistant, Institute for the Advancement of Aboriginal Women (IAAW)

November 2023 – September 2025

- Supported executive leadership while coordinating community programming, workshops, wellness initiatives, and public-facing events.
- Managed scheduling, stakeholder communication, documentation, logistics coordination, and operational support across multiple initiatives.
- Coordinated vendors, presenters, facilitators, and community partners for gatherings and cultural programming.
- Assisted with creative initiatives including the Art Preservation Project, artist coordination, and community engagement activities.

Installation Artist, Curator & Set Design Collaborator, SkirtsAfire Festival

2021 – 2025

- Designed and coordinated immersive installations, lobby activations, and set environments for theatre and multidisciplinary productions.
- Collaborated with artists, curators, technical crews, and production teams to execute projects within strict timelines and production schedules.
- Managed material sourcing, fabrication coordination, installation logistics, audience flow considerations, and environmental storytelling.
- Contributed to productions including Ayita, Nikâwiy, The Shoe Project, and Ocêpihkowan: It Has Roots.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts & Design (Intermedia + Sculpture) — University of Alberta

Diploma of Fine Arts — MacEwan University

Microcomputer Office Assistant Diploma

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Facilitation Fundamentals — Edmonton Chamber of Voluntary Organizations (ECVO)
- Indigenous Leadership Program — University of Alberta
- Art Handling & Exhibition Installation Workshops
- Lateral Violence Prevention Workshop